

CARLBECK NEWSLETTER SUMMER 2024

Hello and welcome to THE CARLBECK CENTRE SUMMER 2024 NEWSLETTER.

The Carlbeck Centre is well known for its crafting and making in the Dale. It regularly attracts a large number of participants to the regular programme of craft and leisure sessions, organised by and for everyone in the community. Specialist workshops are also arranged on an ad hoc basis when there is interest in a particular craft. All the groups are informal drop-in sessions and visitors are welcome to attend one or more sessions per week without making any commitment or signing up to such. However, individuals including beginners, can attend as many or as few sessions as they choose and there is a wealth of expertise in each group and all skill levels welcome; ideas and skills are freely shared and everyone is offered help if requested. Costs are kept low to encourage everyone to have a go. Regular workshops are day session. Alternatively, charges are just £3 for a morning or afternoon session. However many regular crafters opt to pay an annual subscription of £100 which lets them take part in as many sessions as they like. Additional specialist workshops with outside tutors may be charged separately.

MACHINE EMBROIDERY GROUP

The next meeting of the Machine Embroidery group will be July 5th from 10am. (Bring lunch) More members welcome, we meet once a month on a Friday. We have lots of ideas and free tuition no matter what machine you have. Phone Joy on 07703537515.

WORKSHOPWORKSHOPWORKSHOPS

We are so lucky to have Angie Burt, an experienced tutor in hand embroidery, who comes to Carlbeck four times a year for two day workshops.

Some of the work completed this year is shown in the photos! Next weekend workshops with Angie are : 17/18 August and 19/20 October

Bag Ladies at work! 24th April 2024

A crew of bag ladies gathered on the morning of 24th April . . . Scrub that version!!

Bearing in mind the thought that crafters can never have too many bags, a group of

Carlbeckers gathered together to have fun working through one of the many methods of making bags. The usual Monday morning sewing group were joined by ladies from other Carlbeck groups and from Mickleton's Wednesday Club crafters. We were armed with fabric, notions, cutting boards and rulers and set off to create a bag that followed the method outlined in our instructions, but which also was adapted by each sewer in response to their fabric, the size they wanted and the purpose of the bag. We had samples of each stage of the cutting and making to refer to. Collectively we had lots of fun in and among some moments of joy, frustration, bewilderment and bewilderment and surprise. The biggest surprise was when some-one (you know who you are) found she had a knotting function on her machine!!

FORTHCOMING EVENTS....2024
